Oak Hill Birth to Three Program

Supporting families and their children with disabilities or delays in developmental milestones from birth to three years of age

Helping children reach their potential to be the best that they can be

Serving Families in North Central Connecticut

Oak Hill Birth to Three Program

is a program of Oak Hill, a recognized leader in disability services, products and public policy in Connecticut.

Helping children with developmental delays to reach their potential. Our program is family centered where services are provided in the child's daily environment (home, daycare setting, and community).

Our team evaluates all areas of development such as:

- Large muscle skills (rolling, sitting, crawling, walking)
- Small muscle skills (playing with toys)
- Communications (understanding as well as expressing wants and needs)
- Adaptive (self-feeding, dressing, regulating emotions)
- Social Skills (relating to family and friends)
